

We are seeking a Director of London Services to lead our service delivery across London.

You will also have responsibility for a team delivering programmes and services across the UK

Are you the leader we need?

Salary: £36 000 pa
37 hr per week

Location within London is flexible but you will be required to deliver activity in all London Boroughs so ability to travel across London is essential. You will also be required to work from our Head Office in Leeds at least 3 days per month (travel and accommodation will be paid)

This is an exciting opportunity to lead and shape innovative services and work at a senior level for a leading national Hate Crime Charity.

You will need to be highly responsive to changing environments and evening and weekend work is likely to be required particularly to meet the needs of volunteers and occasionally you will be required to travel nationally and internationally so a very flexible approach to working hours is essential.

Closing date for this post is 10:00 am on 2nd December 2016
Interviews will be held on 14th December 2016 in London
